TeleParent Information form an edline solution

Dear Parent/Guardian,

Our school utilizes TeleParent, a district wide parent contact service. This service assists our school in reaching out to large numbers of parents in a quick and efficient manner. You will receive calls for a variety of purposes including:

- Student absences
- Important schoolwide reminders i.e. picture day or yearbook deadline
- Lunch account information for low or negative balances
- Teacher messages, may include information about upcoming assignments or concerns or positive messages
- Important district wide announcements, i.e. may include district start date, immunization information
- Emergency information

The phone number used will be the home phone number provided on your emergency card unless you provide an alternate number below.

In addition, in some cases the district may email information and flyers out to parents; please provide an email address below. Providing an email address will also give you access to a parent account with TeleParent which will allow you to update your contact number and see messages sent to your phone number online.

In order to best meet your needs, please complete the information below and return to the school.
